GAME N° 9

RED THREAD THE PRINCE'S LUNCHEON7 rounds
4 men
1 girlPROCEDURE :

4 men dressed up as French valets must bring dishes to the Prince who is having his lunch.

In order to do this they have to walk along a slippery moving belt which moves in the opposite direction to them.

The moving belt stretches across an enclosed area filled with foam, the bottom of which is covered by a thick rubber mat.

~~Only one player at a time is allowed to walk along the belt.~~ When he has managed to bring one or two dishes to the Prince he must come back along the same moving belt and pass the next valet.

If this were not the case a referee would take the dish or dishes off the Prince's table.

The game continues in this way. The dishes are only counted if the two valets pass each other.

6 girls competitors try to hinder the valet's progress by throwing sacks in their way.

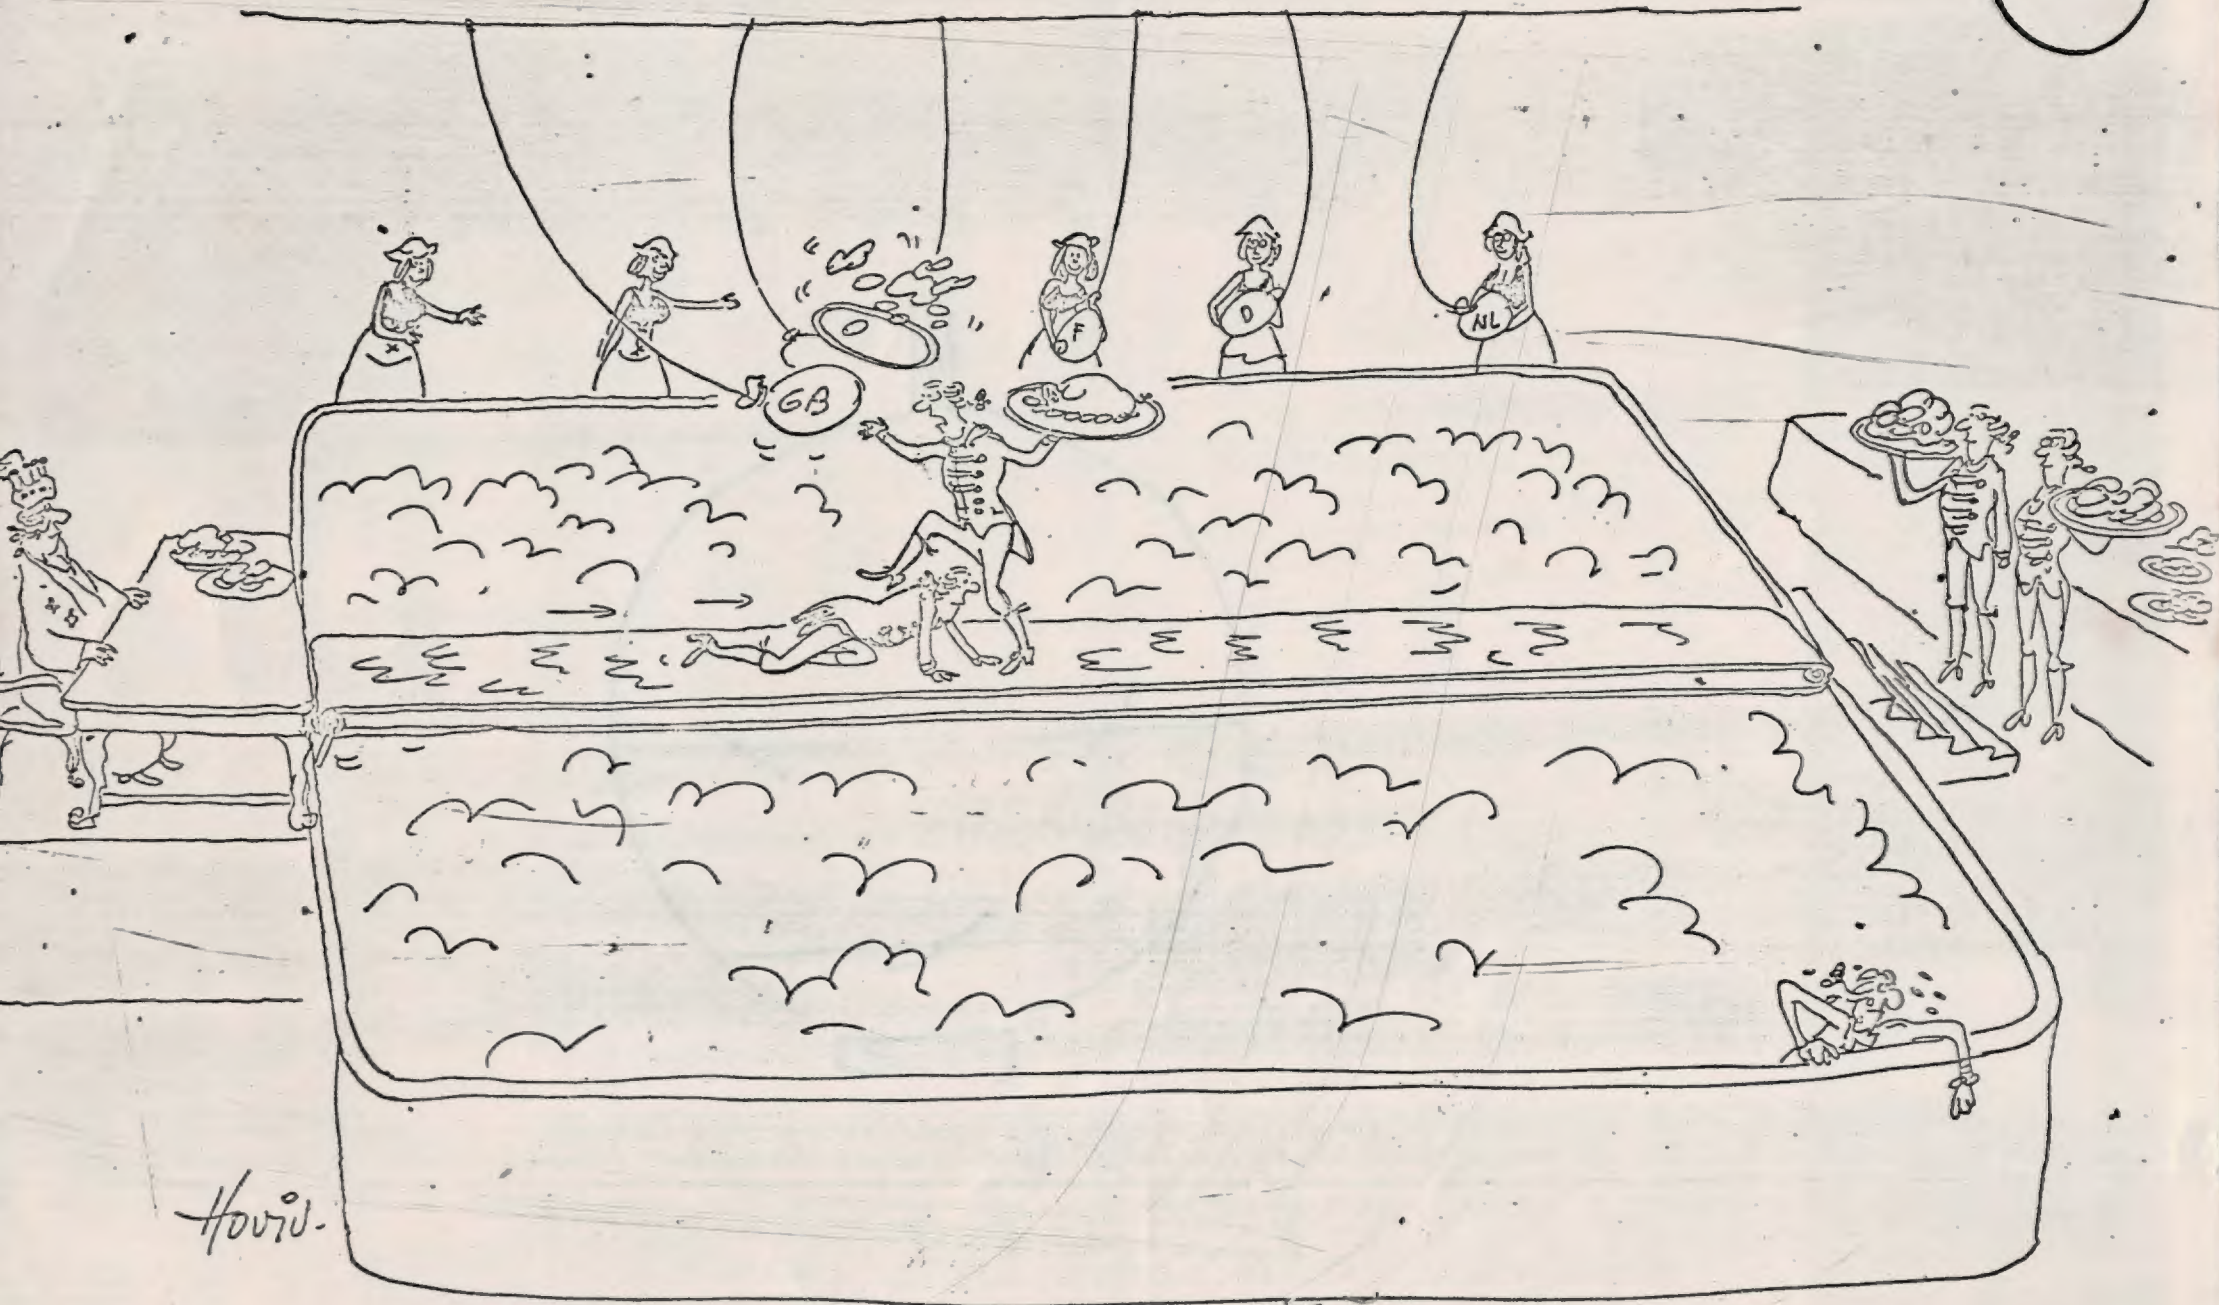

RESULTS :

The teams are placed according to the number of plates which the referee has judged valid and which have therefore remained on the Prince's table.
